The U.S. & European stock markets and most stock markets globally began the week with gains as China announced the easing of COVID-19 restrictions, which gave investors a strong dose of confidence.

Moreover, China's state media reported that in Beijing, restaurants would reopen, and public transportation would again begin providing service to clients; the news gave investors hope that the Chinese economy would soon regain its momentum.

Additionally, the Chinese government is considering lifting restrictions on Didi Global (DIDI) as it ends its review of its technological sector.

Didi stock rose on the News 24.32%; also, Alibaba Group (BABA) rose 6.25%, and Pinduoduo (PDD) rose 5.60%.
